

Rural Generalist Career Progression

Note: The stages outlined below depict one example of career progression along the QRGP. There are numerous, flexible options available to achieve a QRGP endpoint, including alternative training pathways outside AGPT. Specific, individualised career advice can be obtained from QRGP Training Advisors.

Postgraduate Year (PGY)	Qld Rural Generalist Pathway Stage	Position	Australian General Practice Training (AGPT)
			Australian College of Rural and Remote Medicine (ACRRM)	Royal Australian College of General Practitioners (RACGP-RG)
1	Prevocational Training	Intern	AGPT Application can occur in PGY1 or PGY2. If application is not made until PGY2, training will commence from PGY3, unless RPL is applied for.
2		Junior House Officer	Core Generalist Training AGPT Year 1	Hospital Training AGPT Year 1
3	Advanced Skills Training*	Registrar / Principal House Officer (PHO)	Advanced Specialised Training AGPT Year 2	Advanced Rural Skills Training AGPT Year 2
4	Vocational / Fellowship Training	PHO	Core Generalist Training AGPT Year 3 & 4	GP Terms inc. 6 months Core Emergency Medicine Training (Core EMT) AGPT Year 3 & 4
5		Senior Medical Officer (Provisional Fellow) Medical Officer with Private Practice (MOPP) Rural General Practitioner Registrar
6+	Continuing Professional Development	Senior Medical Officer (Rural Generalist) Medical Superintendent with Private Practice (MSPP) MOPP Rural General Practitioner Visiting Medical Officer Advanced Credentialed Practice (VMO AP)	FACRRM	FRACGP-RG

*Advanced Skills Training can occur any time after PGY2